The lawsuit alleges that Better Home made false and/or misleading statements and failed to disclose that: (i) the Company's conversion funnel was already slowing due to macro factors; and (ii) as a result, the Company's $1 billion monthly funded volume target was likely to be deferred.

On May 7, 2026, Better Home released its first quarter 2026 financial results, which included guidance of Loan Volume of $1.575 to $1.725 billion for second quarter 2026, below previously issued guidance of $1.0 billion in Monthly Loan Volume by the end of May 2026. The Company stated, "Conversion rates are down from where they were in Q1 due to macro factors" and that due to "the rate spike [and] the escalation in the Middle East... customers are not converting at nearly the same rate." On this news, the price of Better Home shares declined by $12.17 per share, or approximately 28.5%, from $42.69 per share on May 6, 2026 to close at $30.52 on May 7, 2026.
