BIOGRAPHY

Annika Reno is an associate practicing out of our New York office.

Prior to joining KM, Ms. Reno served for two years as a law clerk to the Honorable Robert M. Levy of the U.S. District Court for the Eastern District of New York.

Ms. Reno received her J.D. from Harvard Law School in 2024. As a student attorney in the Consumer Protection Clinic at the Harvard Legal Services Center, she represented low-income consumers at every stage of affirmative and defensive litigation in state and federal court, including discovery, motion practice, settlement negotiation, and trial. She also served as Policy Director and student attorney with the Prison Legal Assistance Project and as an Article Editor of the Harvard Journal of Law & Gender. She worked in the Housing and Civil Enforcement Section of the Civil Rights Division of the U.S. Department of Justice, at the National Consumer Law Center, and at Greater Boston Legal Services.

Before law school, Ms. Reno was a Fulbright Scholar in Sarawak, Malaysia, and served as press secretary for a New York City mayoral campaign.

Ms. Reno joined the firm in 2026.
